UNKNOWN BANK ROBBERS

Suspect #1

Suspect #2

DESCRIPTION

Remarks: Suspect one is described as a White male, approximately 5'10" and medium build. He was wearing a gray hooded sweatshirt, a longer-style black winter coat with a zippered in front, and black sweatpants. His face was covered with a black mask around the mouth and black sunglasses. He was wearing New Balance tennis shoes with orange soles and carrying what appears to be a newly purchased plain canvass bag. Suspect one was described as being aggressive. Suspect two, who is referred to as "Mac" by suspect one, is described as a White male, approximately 5'8" to 5'10" and medium-to-slender build. He was wearing a gray hooded sweatshirt under a black Under Armour-style jacket with stripes along the sleeves, and gray striped Nike sweatpants. His face was covered with a ski mask and sunglasses, and he was wearing white tennis shoes with black stripes across the top of the shoes.

Vehicle Information: It is possible the suspects parked in the east parking lot of the St. Luke's Specialty Hospital and may have walked between the Twisted Fresh and Edible Arrangement retail locations prior to entering the bank and when fleeing the scene.

Weapon Used: Suspect one was armed with a black frame handgun. Suspect two was armed with a black semi-automatic handgun.

CAUTION

On February 15, 2019, at approximately 10:56 a.m., two unknown White male subjects entered the Equity Bank located at 6200 Northwest 63rd Terrace in Kansas City, Missouri. The take-over style robbery included the subjects making an oral demand for cash and brandishing firearms. No injuries were reported. The two unknown subjects fled the bank with an undisclosed amount of money.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the identification, arrest and conviction of the individuals responsible.
